

Girl Scout, American Heritage & Campfire Adult Award Nomination

The National Federation for Catholic Youth Ministry, acting through the local diocese, may award the St. Anne or the St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Awards to members of the laity and clergy. Registered volunteers and non-registered volunteers alike, who have made significant and outstanding contributions to the spiritual development of Catholic young people through the programs of the Girl Scouts, American Heritage or Campfire.

You may not nominate yourself or your spouse. General volunteer achievements alone do not qualify for the awards. Successful nominees will have a proven track-record of supporting Catholic spiritual growth through the programs of the named youth programs.

The committee desires to present as many awards as possible. However, they cannot consider nominations when inadequate information has been provided.

This recommendation is for (choose one award):

- St. Anne Award – The highest national recognition available for adults who serve Catholic youth through Girl Scouts, Heritage or Campfire
- St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Award -- A national award usually received before the St. Anne Award.
